

'How wonderful, how pleasing it is when all God's people come together as one.'

A Parent Forum is a partnership between parents and the school. It is a valuable way to share ideas, views, concerns and make suggestions for improvement.

The aims of the Parent Forum:

- to work together to improve the education provided for our children
- to share information, knowledge and skills
- to meet in a mutually supportive environment
- to further improve communications between parents/carer/ staff/governor

Who can be part of the parent forum?

Any parent/carer of children currently at Croughton All Saints CE Primary School is welcome to be part of the forum meeting. Mrs. Smith will lead the meeting with other members of the school community also attending the meetings depending on the agenda items and what the school feels they would like to share with the parents, such as new initiatives.

We require a representative from each class as a minimum or year group as a maximum to attend a meeting – this could be the same person or on rotation. This means there will be between 4 and 7 representatives each time from the parents. If we have more than one parent offering to attend this can be discussed between parents or drawn out of a hat. We shall name who will be attending a week prior to the forum meeting.

Why should I be part of the parent forum?

It gives you, the parent, an opportunity to get together on a regular basis with other parents to have your say on what the school is doing well, and suggest ideas of how things could be improved.

What will be discussed at the meetings?

Anything related to improving the school and further developing the partnership between the school and parents. The meetings will be informal and are an opportunity for an open discussion. Minutes of the meetings will be taken and these will be accessible on the school's website.

It is not the forum to discuss concerns or complaints involving individual children, families or members of staff.

Currently we only have three regular members who attend and whilst this is brilliant it would be wonderful to have some additional parents join us and be a part of this discussion group too!

Our first meeting will be on Friday 3rd October at 2.15pm - please let the office know if you can attend.
