NEWSLETTER – 6th February 2026

Dear Parents and Carers

This week in worship we further looked at our spirituality focus and revisited the word 'Wow' adding Ow and Now too. The Ow was our focus where we thought about situations that might bring an 'ow' into our lives, but we can hopefully find strength to get back up again and maybe even be stronger from it and possibly even turn it into a wow! One aspect we looked at was Japanese pottery and Kintsugi and the use of Golden Glue.

This week was also National Story Telling week, with the theme soundtrack your story and different activities took place for this including attending an online session. Rev'd George returned this week after some leave and led a Bible service in school with Year 4 supporting where pupils in Year 3 were presented a Bible. These Bibles remain in school for pupils to use as part of RE specifically or at other times when needed and when pupils leave, they get to take the Bible with them. In class worship this week the question was relating to how we see ourselves and where we belong – the focus was on the new Barbie doll that has been released representing people who have autism. We have also thought a little bit about the Winter Olympics which has started and we looked at the 16 disciplines/sports that are competed for, which this year is in Italy.

Today some Year 5 and 6 students have gone to Daventry to represent our school at a Net & Wall festival – Mrs Worts accompanied them and we shall find out how they got on next week – thank you to parents for your support with this.

Next week, it's incredibly the last week of term!

This means we have our Homework Gallery on Tuesday; I am having Hot Chocolate on Wednesday with some pupils and on Friday we will be giving out January and February Birthday stickers in VIP assembly along with a surprise, fun, end of term activity for everyone happening throughout the day.

We will also be sharing some useful documents next week and sending out information on World Book Day, Spirituality and the Parent Questionnaire results. We will also open the booking for Parents evening which is taking place on the 3rd and 5th of March.

Have a lovely weekend,

Kind regards, Mrs. Sarah Smith
