From: Mr Skears

Write a newspaper report about the Blitz in London. 	Create a power-point about the First World War trenches. Here are the names of each slide: What were trenches? What did trench warfare involve? What was life like for a trench soldier?	Choose a rose from the 'War of the Roses' and create a large paper collage of the rose. You could use pieces of magazines or newspapers.
Design and build your own Anderson Shelter. How creative can you be? 	Write a message to Mr Skears using Morse Code. I wonder what you will write... Could you write this on tea bag stained paper to make it look more realistic? 	Research the propaganda posters that were featured throughout the war. Can you design your own propaganda poster? It could be on joining the army, sow grow and farm, or make do and mend.
Draw or trace a map of the world and mark the countries which were involved in the Second World War.	Write a WW2 dinner menu, or ration booklet only using ingredients that were available during rationing.	Design and build a life-size gas mask box. How detailed can you make it?

We need the ration booklets and gas mask boxes for our play, so please choose one of these as one of your choices for homework!
