

Homework – Sycamore Summer 1

Label a Roman soldier – could you present this in an interesting way? Which rank/s will you choose? 	Long-term MTC project: use a free MTC simulator website. Complete it regularly and make a tracker to show your progress each time. Bring in your tracker or present your progress in a table or graph!	 Write your own holiday brochure for a destination of your choice. Which of the 'Reading Rainbow FANTASTICS' (acronym) can you include?
Create your own piece of artwork around the theme 'botanical' – you could draw, paint, sculpt or use a different medium of your choice.	Visit a museum to find out about a type of Roman building and make a 3D model of it. 	Create an informative fact file about a Roman emperor of your choice. Include images, maps, and timelines to make your fact file really stand out!
Write a diary from the perspective of a Roman child. Remember to use first person, emotive language and write in chronological order. Dear Diary...	Create a quiz about 2D shapes. Your questions could be about the types of angles and lines (parallel and perpendicular) the shapes have, as well as any lines of symmetry.	Build a working electrical circuit using various components. Get creative!
