NEWSLETTER –13th February 2026

Dear Parents and Carers

This week we have been discussing many aspects with regard to Children's Mental Health week – the theme this year being "This is My Place" which is to help foster a sense of belonging. Different activities have taken place throughout the week for the children to engage in on this theme.

Alongside this was Safer Internet Day on Tuesday where classes were reminded of safe practices online as well as looking further at AI.

We also had the Homework Gallery which was a wonderful array of models, art, writing and photos of the different tasks completed. This is all very much appreciated as I know much is facilitated by parents and we hope it allows the opportunity to explore the areas we are looking at in school, at home in a creative, fun way.

Monday the Gem Jar overflowed which caused much excitement and today children have been treated to some Nerf fun up at the Village Hall.

Rev'd George came in to lead Worship on Thursday where he spoke about Shrove Tuesday and Ash Wednesday, both of which fall in half term. This is a key event in the Christian calendar and marks the start of Lent.

A Parent's Evening letter went out this week – the closing date for making your booking is Friday 27th February – thank to those of you who have already booked in!

Today you will have received an email with some possible thoughts and ideas to do during Half term – this links to World Book Day, a Spirituality Task and Lent activity.

I hope you all have a lovely half-term,

Kind regards, Mrs. Sarah Smith
